

Early College Pathways

For High School Students

Early College Programs

Concurrent Enrollment

Dual Enrollment

Program

Type

Friday Classes

- Sign up through Cochise Technology District (CTD)
- Attend on the college campus on Fridays
- Auto, HVAC, Welding, Culinary, Behavioral Health Sciences
- Tuition funded through CTD, but must apply and pay a fee to them

Early College Academy

- Sign up through High School (participating schools only)
- Pursue an AGEC certificate or school approved courses
- Takes places on the college campus or online during the school day

Independent

- Sign up at Cochise College
- Classes taken independently by student
- Funded by student
- Option to use as high school credit pending approval from HS, must be student initiated

Reverse Credit

- Sign up at High School
- Offerings vary per school
- Typically earns credits in math, english, and some CTE
- Usually lower tuition rate or partially funded by Cochise Technology District (student must apply and pay a fee)

Dual

- Sign up at High School
- Offerings vary per school
- Must register through school
- Typically earns credits in math, english, history and some CTE
- Lower tuition rate

Destination

Earn a college and/or industry certificate. Could lead to stackable certifications and increase professional opportunities.

Transfer to University with all general education requirements fulfilled

Transfer to University or stay at Cochise College to work on Associates Degree/ Certificates

Transfers to University and fulfills some AGEC requirements